YCCHS Update:

The Yavapai County Community Health Services is spreading the word about the importance of September as the Emergency Preparedness and Suicide Prevention month. Emergency situations and personal tragedies may seem unlikely and distant until the moment we are confronted with them. We can mitigate and sometimes prevent these issues with resources that provide clear and practical solutions. The Yavapai County Emergency Management department provides excellent information. Additionally, the 988 Suicide & Crisis Hotline is available. If you or someone you know is struggling or in crisis, help is available. Call or text 988 or chat 988lifeline.org.
